Environment Department Reschedules Public Hearing for City of Grants' Wastewater Treatment Facility Permit

Meeting Will Now be Held July 21 Instead of May 22

WHAT: The New Mexico Environment Department's Ground Water Quality Bureau rescheduled a Public Hearing regarding the City of Grants' Wastewater Treatment Facility Discharge Permit Renewal and Modification. The meeting date has been changed to July 21 instead of Thursday, May 22. Residents and others interested in the renewal are welcome to attend and present comments or concerns.

WHEN: The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, July 21

WHERE: Martinez Hall, New Mexico State University-Grants Campus, 1500 N. Third St., Grants, New Mexico.

WHY: The City of Grants proposes to renew and modify the permit to allow the discharge of up to 1,800,000 gallons per day of domestic wastewater from the City of Grants to the facility.

For more information, call Marissa Stone at (505) 827-0314.
