Voluntary Recall for 24oz White and Wheat Breads
Purchased Prior to May 2, 2011

The New Mexico Environment Department (NMED) is issuing a consumer advisory in relation to an FDA voluntary recall of 24oz white and wheat breads purchased prior to May 2, 2011.

Tri-State Bakery, L.L.C. of Amarillo, Texas is recalling 24 ounce white and wheat breads purchased prior to May 2, 2011 because they may contain undeclared soy flour, soy lecithin, and milk. These allergens are required to be listed on the package label for any products containing them.

People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to soy flour, soy lecithin, and milk run the risk of serious or life-threatening allergic reaction if they consume these products.

The Recalled Bread was distributed to: TX, NM, CO, OK, KS, AZ and it reached consumers through retail grocery stores.

No illnesses have been reported to date relating to the consumption or use of the Recalled Bread.

Consumers who purchased the Recalled Bread are urged to return it to the place of purchase for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact Tri-State Baking, L.L.C. at 1-800-234-3661 ext.7848 Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

More information about the recall can be found on the FDA website at:

<http://www.fda.gov/Safety/Recalls/ucm254306.htm>

In addition, information on food allergy safety can be found at:

<http://www.fda.gov/Food/ResourcesForYou/Consumers/ucm079311.htm>

NMED is working to verify by phone, fax or email that facilities have been made aware of the recalled products and has been removed from sale. This will affect many convenience stores and grocery stores.
