

Four Corners Air Quality Interagency Task Force Policy Oversight Group (POG)

The Policy Oversight Group is an interagency group working cooperatively to improve air quality in the Four Corners region. This group is working under the auspices of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) to share information, resources and planning efforts toward improved air quality. The Four Corners Air Quality Task Force is convened by the State of New Mexico and Colorado, and is supported by the POG. Members of the POG are also participating on the Task Force.
