

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

Regarding:

Intel Corporation: Rio Rancho Facility

AIR QUALITY DRAFT PERMIT No. P257

Announcement:

The New Mexico Air Quality Bureau (AQB) is hosting a public meeting regarding Intel Corporation's draft air quality operating permit for the Rio Rancho Facility located at 4100 Sara Rd; Rio Rancho, NM.

The purpose of the meeting is to give concerned citizens the opportunity to express their concern/support for the facility and allow the Department an opportunity to describe the permitting process, the role of the AQB, and the draft permit.

The AQB will provide a presentation describing points that are important to the citizens or the permitting process. Individuals will be able to view the information and ask questions of the AQB staff. Following the presentation, the AQB will conduct a listening session, where individuals can voice their concerns to the Department.

Questions about this public meeting should be directed to Daren Zigich, Air Quality Bureau, 525 Camino de los Marquez Suite 1, Santa Fe, NM 87505-1816, or telephone (505) 476-4366.
