Drinking Water Advisory Group Organization Meeting

The New Mexico Environment Department Drinking Water Bureau (DWB) will be convening a meeting of the Drinking Water Advisory Group (DWAG) in the Runnels Building Auditorium, Santa Fe New Mexico on July 9th, 2009 between 9:00 AM and 1:00 PM. The purpose of the meeting is to create a process which can increase understanding, foster communication, and increase knowledge transfer between DWB, Municipalities, Mutual Domestic Water Associations, non profit associations and other stakeholders involved with the drinking water industry. The end result of this process will be to develop the DWAG into an effective tool to advise and council DWB on matters of concern to public drinking water systems in the State of New Mexico.

Proposed agenda for the meeting includes:

- ❖ Introduction of Drinking Water Bureau management team and organizational structure.
- ❖ Description of the Drinking Water Bureaus mission and vision of the future
- ❖ Discussion of important issues facing public drinking water systems in New Mexico.
 - Compliance with certified operator requirements of the SDWA
 - Financial stability of public drinking water systems
 - Requirements of the groundwater rule
 - Other topics as identified
- ❖ Organization of DWAG committee and sub-committees
