7.6.2.11 GENERAL FOOD PROCESSING REQUIREMENTS:

- A. Food processing plant permit requirements.
- (1) All food processing plants shall comply with all applicable provisions of Chapters 1-8 of the Food Code.
 - (2) No person shall operate a food processing plant without a permit issued by the regulatory authority.
 - (3) When a food establishment has an adjunct/additional food processing plant, each such business may be permitted separately.
- B. Sale of adulterated or misbranded food.

(1) No person shall sell or offer, or expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell, any processed and packaged food product that is adulterated or misbranded.

(2) The term “adulterated” includes products that are defective, unsafe, filthy, or produced under unsanitary conditions (Section 25-2-10 NMSA 1978).

(3) “Misbranding” includes statements, designs, or pictures in labeling that are false or misleading, or failure to provide required information outlined in Paragraph (2) of Subsection D of 7.6.2.11 NMAC.

(4) Adulterated or misbranded food products shall be reconditioned, condemned or destroyed in accordance with Section 25-2-6 NMSA 1978.

C. Labeling requirements.

(1) All packaged food shall be labeled in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act as amended, the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act, regulations developed thereunder, and the New Mexico Food Act. Details concerning type, size and location of required labels are contained in FDA regulations covering the requirements of the federal acts (Code of Federal Regulation, Title 21, Part 101.)

(2) At least the following information shall appear on the label of any packaged food:
(a) the name, street address, city, state and zip code of either the manufacturer, packer, or distributor;

(b) an accurate statement of the net amount of food in the package, in terms of weight measure, volume measure (listed in both “English” and metric units) or numerical count;

(c) the common or usual name of the food contained in the package; and

(d) ingredients of the food, listed by their common names, in order of their predominance by weight.

(3) If the label of a food bears representation in a foreign language, the label must bear all the required statements in the foreign language, as well as in English. This requirement does not apply to Spanish names that are commonly used in New Mexico.

(4) Any food product that does not comply with all applicable labeling requirements shall be deemed to be misbranded.

D. Standards of identity.

(1) Standards of identity define what a given food product is, its name and the ingredients that must be used, or are allowed to be used, and the ones that must be declared on the label. FDA food standards govern both labeling and composition of such foods, and must be consulted for detailed specifications. The standards are published in the annual editions of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Title 21, Parts 103 through 169.

(2) Any food product that is represented as, or purports to be, a food for which a standard of identity has been promulgated, must comply with the specifications of the standard in every respect. A food product that does not comply fully with the applicable standard is misbranded, unless its label bears the word “imitation” or meets the descriptive label requirements in the CFR, Title 21, Part 101.

E. Low acid canned foods and acidified foods.

(1) All processors of low acid canned foods or foods that have been acidified must comply with specific federal regulations contained in the CFR, Title 21, Parts 108, 113, and 114.

(2) All processors of low acid canned foods and acidified foods are required by federal regulation to register their food processing plants and file processing information for all products with the FDA using appropriate forms. Registration and processing information forms are obtainable on request from: FDA, LACF Registration Coordinator (HFF-233), 200-C Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20204.

(3) Any low acid canned food product that does not comply with the federal requirements will be considered adulterated.

F. Operational plans.

- (a) names of the ingredient(s);
- (b) the final product pH if appropriate;
- (c) the final product water activity (a_w) if appropriate;
- (d) names of preservative(s);
- (e) the type of packaging to be used and whether the packaging is integral to product stability (e.g. the vacuum packing of fresh meat); and

(f) the complete operational procedure for product formulation, using a flow chart to show at what stage(s) each ingredient is added.

(2) Food processing plants shall, at the time of application for a permit for review and acceptance by the regulatory authority, provide the following information about product distribution:

- (a) the intended distribution and use condition of the product;
- (b) if the product is to be distributed at ambient, refrigerated or frozen temperature;
- (c) the expected shelf life during distribution, retail storage, and in the hands of the ultimate consumer;
- (d) how the product should be prepared for consumption; and
- (e) what mishandling of the product might occur in the merchandising channels or in the hands of the consumer.

(3) Food processing plants shall, at the time of application for a permit for review and acceptance by the regulatory authority, state the intended process (cooking time and temperatures). This information may be included in the flow chart required in Subparagraph (f) of Paragraph (1) of Subsection F of 7.6.2.11 NMAC. Consideration must be given to those steps that lead to the destruction or inhibition of disease causing or spoilage organisms if done properly, or the growth of such organisms if done improperly.

(4) Food processing plants shall, at the time of application for a permit for review and acceptance by the regulatory authority, submit product labels that comply with all requirements of Subsection C of 7.6.2.11 NMAC.

(5) Prior to adding any new product to the product line, or changing the manufacturing process or product distribution for any existing product in the product line, the food processor shall provide to the regulatory authority:

- (a) for each new product, the same information as specified for the initial application in Paragraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of Subsection F of 7.6.2.11 NMAC; and
- (b) for each existing product for which a change will be made in the manufacturing process or product distribution, the applicable changes to the information previously submitted pursuant to Paragraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of Subsection F of 7.6.2.11 NMAC.

(6) All food processing plants shall design, maintain and use a coding system that will identify the date and place of manufacture of each product on the product label, or securely affixed to the body of the container. A description of the proposed coding system shall be included in the application.

(7) The regulatory authority may require that the food processing plant's processes be reviewed by a competent process authority to approve all critical factors of public health significance as defined in the CFR, Title 21, Sections 114.83 and 114.89.

(8) In lieu of a process authority, the regulatory authority may accept those processes which comply with Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection E of 7.6.2.11 NMAC.

(9) Recall procedures shall be prepared and must be on file at the food processing plant. Procedures shall include plans for recalling products which may be injurious to human health; for identifying products which may be injurious to human health; for identifying, collecting, warehousing, and controlling products; for determining the effectiveness of recalls; for notifying the regulatory authority, FDA, and United States department of agriculture (USDA) of any recalls; and for implementing recall programs.

(10) Whenever the regulatory authority finds or has probable cause to believe that any food processing plant's product fails to meet standards or is adulterated with any substance that may be injurious to human health, the suspected lot of product shall be embargoed or detained at the food processing plant, if not yet distributed to consumers or retail outlets, until a determination of ultimate disposition is made.

(11) If the suspected lot has been distributed, the food processing plant shall be given the opportunity to recall the product voluntarily at the processor's expense.

(12) If a food processing plant refuses to conduct a voluntary recall, the secretary of the New Mexico environment department may order a mandatory recall of the suspected product lot at the processor's expense.

(13) When any food product is found, by examination or laboratory analysis, to be in violation of the standards of Subsections B, D or E, of 7.6.2.11 NMAC, the secretary of the New Mexico environment department may order condemnation and disposal of the product lot at the food processing plant's expense.

G. Compliance with accepted operational procedures.

(1) A copy of the accepted process and procedures shall be on file at the food processing plant. It shall be available for review by the regulatory authority at all times. A food processing plant shall not deviate from the accepted process and operational procedures without written consent of the regulatory authority.

(2) Samples of ingredients, materials obtained from selected points during the course of processing or handling, and final products shall be examined for pathogenic microorganisms as often as necessary for quality assurance. Food products may also be tested for organisms that are indicative of the possible presence of pathogens or for specific spoilage organisms. The secretary of the New Mexico environment department may request that certain foods be examined for specific pathogenic microorganisms or their toxins.

(3) Routine inspections of facilities, equipment and operations will be conducted as specified in this section. In addition, HACCP evaluations will be conducted by the regulatory authority or the food processing plant as needed to identify hazards, critical control points, and daily monitoring requirements.
