

Concerned about PFAS?

We can help!

Are you concerned your water system may have PFAS or other emerging contaminants? The Drinking Water State Revolving Loan Fund Emerging Contaminant Fund Bipartisan Infrastructure Law (BIL) funding may be able to help.

100% subsidized funding is available!

HELP US HELP YOU

by completing a no obligation pre-application at:

www.env.nm.gov/drinking_water/infrastructure-projects-and-funding

The DWSRF Emerging Contaminant Fund BIL can provide public water systems with fully funded subsidies for Surveys, Treatment Design, & Construction

PROJECT ELIGIBILITIES

The project must be in a small or disadvantaged community to be eligible for funding. The project proposal must say that the projects main purpose is to address emerging contaminants in drinking water. The EPA's Contaminant Candidate List can be found HERE