

Steven Glass

Please reach out to New Mexico's Soil and Water Conservation Districts for input about water reuse, especially in areas where produced water disposal is a local issue. SWCDs have a unique and valuable perspective on natural resource sustainable uses and protection, and should be part of the conversation around the draft regulations. Thank you!