

ESSENTIAL BUSINESSES PER PUBLIC HEALTH ORDER

On April 30, 2020, New Mexico Department of Health Secretary Kathy Kunkel announced an extension and clarification to the March 23, 2020 public health emergency order suspending operations of all businesses and nonprofit entities except for those deemed essential, and further restricting mass gatherings due to the COVID-19 pandemic through May 15, 2020.

All New Mexicans must immediately heed the directive to stay home except as needed to maintain continuity of functions critical to public health and safety.

This list does not include government services, which are unaffected by this order. State government has already implemented telework policies for all employees who are able to work from home; local governments have been strongly encouraged to do the same.
