HEARING OFFICER ORDER

The Water Quality Control Commission appointed a hearing officer to this matter who conducted a properly-noticed public hearing on April 10th, 2018. Upon review of the ACO, Respondent's answer, Respondent's request for hearing, the administrative record including all admitted exhibits, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, the WQA, and the regulations. The hearing officer orders that the civil penalty be upheld. The Water Quality Control Commission will meet and deliberate on the recommended decision and may issue a new final order consistent with their deliberations.
