

Castaneda, Pam, NMENV

From: Nancy King <nanking1224@earthlink.net>
Sent: Sunday, April 14, 2013 9:01 PM
To: Castaneda, Pam, NMENV
Subject: Maintaining water quality in New Mexico

Dear Ms. Castaneda,

Contaminated water endangers the health of New Mexican families, businesses, and industry. Please do what you can to ensure that no new rules violate the Water Quality Act.. Mining companies should not be exempt from providing liners and from preventing leaking pipelines.

Thank you very much,

Nancy King
Santa Fe

For news and to read excerpt of some of my books:

The Stones Speak
Morning Light
A Woman Walking

Dancing With Wonder: Self-Discovery Through Stories
Storymaking In Education and Therapy, co-authored with Alida Gersie

and to learn about readings and workshops:

please visit: <http://www.nancykingstories.com>